

Sacramento Floodplain Ecology Institute

FREE for K-12 educators & receive $200 for classroom materials

Two CEU units available for purchase

June 25 – 27, 2018, 8am – 3pm

follow-up day Saturday in November TBD

Monday, June 25: West Sacramento: Urban Flood Protection

Tuesday, June 26: Cosumnes River Preserve: Floodplain Ecology Research and canoeing!

Wednesday, June 27: Woodland: Raising Salmon & Rice in the Yolo Bypass

- Field trips to regional floodplains with biologists and engineers
- Curriculum resources for teaching NGSS, Common Core ELA and history/ social science in the context of current water issues

Project WET 2.0 (Water Education for Teachers)

EEI (Environmental Education Initiative)

- Career Panel: Learn from environmental scientists, engineers, and agricultural professionals about careers in these fields and what skills students need to be successful
- Planning time with peers to translate your learning to the classroom

“Learned so much. Saw so much. Science in action.” – 2015 Participant

“This is the best professional development workshop I have done!” – 2016 Participant

“The interactive activities were all fun & inspired so many ideas for future lessons.” – 2017 Participant

Register: <https://goo.gl/YWVcKm>

For live link or questions: Karen Swan, Region 3 CREEC Coordinator, karen.swan@ycoe.org